

Michelle D. Belinfante serves as Partner of The Leasing & Management Group, Inc. Prior to founding the company, she was with The Shopping Center Group, Inc., a leading Southeastern retail brokerage firm. There, she specialized in tenant and landlord representation with an emphasis on tenant representation, new development project leasing and investments. Her previous position was as Director of Real Estate for Equity Properties and Development Company. Her responsibilities included coordinating and implementing the leasing and negotiating of power centers located throughout the United States, supervising and managing a total of eleven third party brokers, overseeing EPDC's "Team Leasing" program and providing leadership and management skills to motivate and challenge the leasing department. Michelle was also the Vice President of Leasing for Mimms Enterprises, an Atlanta developer. At Mimms, she performed leasing, oversaw construction issues, store space designing, renewals, marketing, acquisitions and dispositions. She is a graduate of the University of Georgia with a B.A. in Political Science and is an M.B.A. candidate in Finance.